Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty."
The reason is easy to find: Rare Perfumes, lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place:

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Application has been filed in Probate Court for the appointment of a guardian for Mary E. Moore, of Lowell, alleged to be an imbecile.

—The New Century Historical Society held its first meeting of the season last night and it was largely attended. F. W. Minshall read a paper on the oil fields about Marietta, giving a history of oil and gas developments, also as to the pipe lines and oil refiners. Mr. A. D. Follett also favored the Society with a brief account of his trip to Europe during the past summer, describing in graphic language the many points of interest, including historic buildings, Cathedrals, picture galleries, etc. It was a very pleasant occasion.

—Go to the Bee Hive for hosiery, underwear, gloves and mittens.

—In Mayor's court Friday evening Louis Klineck and Harry Boothby, two young men from the West Side, were arraigned on the charge of disturbing a meeting at the Gilman Avenue M. E. church, but were discharged, there being no evidence to convict.

—Squire B. E. Guyton and Dr. R. S. Gage addressed a meeting of enthusiastic Republicans at Doop's school house Thursday evening. Dr. Gage spoke at Rea's Run Friday evening.

—Hon. N. A. Coste, Reeve of Malden, Canada, together with his wife, is visiting his sons, M. R. and E. Coste, this city.

—Sam McMillen, Jr., of Springfield, O., is visiting friends in the city.

—R. K. Moore, agent of the United States Express Company at Athens, will be home today on a visit to his parents.

—In Probate Court Friday a marriage license was issued to Charles Cochran and Pearl Weber, both of Grandview township.

—Go to the Bee Hive for millinery.

—Col. R. L. Nye has been appointed guardian of Miss Kate Small, minor.

—G. W. Frasure and Retha Frances Preston, two young people of Hocking, arrived here yesterday evening for the purpose of having the nuptial knot tied. They procured a license at 8 o'clock last evening and afterward procured the services of a minister who made them happy. It was a runaway match. —Parkersburg Journal.

—Born, Thursday evening, October 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arendt, a son.

—The Third street paving on the square between Scammel and Wooster is progressing rapidly and will probably be completed today. As each square of this street is improved the largely increased amount of traffic becomes apparent.

—The Henderson Oil Company got a good well in the Cow Run sand on the Magruder farm at Long Run Friday which makes a showing for a 100-barrel producer.

—Big bargains in underwear at the Bee Hive Store.

—The Republican meeting Tuesday evening was well attended, and one of the most orderly meetings ever held in Matamoras. The speech by Hon. John L. Locke, of Cambridge, was one of the very best ever heard in our town. The strictest attention was given by members of all parties and the only thing to mar the perfect harmony of the occasion was the howling of one fellow for Bryan. And we wish to say that the Democrats present all condemned the act. The McKinley and Hobart club has 155 members. —Matamoras Mail.

—The Sistersville Oil Review records a bet made in that city on the odds of 16 to 1 that McKinley will be the next President.

—Mr. Louis Gottschalk, an eminent chemist of Chicago, is in the city on business.

—E. W. Schofield, late Treasurer of Lawrence county, was in the city Friday.

—The league baseball teams doing the barnstorming business among what they are pleased to term "country clubs" are having their troubles. Pittsburg was defeated this week by both Marietta and Parkersburg and Cincinnati got it in the neck at Barnesville by a score of 8 to 3. Friday the Reds played Cambridge, Dwyer and Armstrong pitching, and it took them ten innings to beat the Guernseyites by a score of 4 to 5. It is said the Pittsburg fellows have gone into mourning since their defeat by Marietta.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robertson and Mrs. Charles Buchanan, West Side, were guests of relatives at Beverly during the Fair.

—Rev. and Mrs. T. I. McRa and children, of Cumberland, spent a portion of the past week as guests of relatives at Newport.

—For hosiery, gloves, underwear, towels, towelings and table cloth goods go to the Bee Hive.

—Mr. John McAllister, the Republican nominee for sheriff of this county, took in the Fair at this place. Mr. McAllister has many friends in this portion of the county who will give him their support. —Beverly Dispatch.

—Miss Katie Grubb left Thursday for Pittsburg, on a visit to friends.

—Go to the Bee Hive for your millinery goods.

—Sanford Harpold, who was arrested for living on a houseboat without the required license, was arraigned before Squire Guyton Friday, but his fine was remitted upon his taking out the license according to law.

—A telegram received Friday morning by Mrs. F. C. Abel, announced the death of her father, William Potmor, of Ellenville, N. Y.

—Pittsburgers are sore over the defeat of the Pirates by Marietta. A special from that city says: "The game at Marietta, Ohio, in which they were almost pushed off the earth by a lot of country boys, was the finishing stroke, and they declared their cup was running over. The black flag, with its ominous skull and cross-bones, has been folded and laid away for the season, and the players have taken their bitter dose and quietly walked the plank."

—A number of Athens and Parkersburg sports were in the city Friday to "root" for the Ohio University football team.

—Geo. B. Sunderland sold a lot in the Curtis Subdivision to Leslie Smith, who will build at once.

—Mrs. Charles A. Ludey will leave this afternoon for Caldwell, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Martin for a week or two. Mrs. Ludey's health is improving.

—For Ladies' Gents' and Children's Underwear go to the Bee Hive.

Consumption is the natural result of a neglected cold. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, bronchitis, asthma and all lung troubles down to the very borderland of consumption.

WAVERLY, W. Va., Oct. 8.—On Sunday, October 11, the beautiful little M. E. church, which was just completed a short time ago, will be formally dedicated. Preparations are being made for a real "old-fashioned dedication." Dinner will be prepared for as many as 1,000 people.

Rev. B. W. Hutchinson, of the Buckhannon Seminary, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last for hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at W. H. Styer's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

When two Chinese men meet, their way of saying "How do you do?" is "How are your bowels?" It amounts to the same thing. If the bowels are in good condition the rest of the system is pretty sure to be all right. But when they are constipated, it has a half-paralyzing effect on the rest of the body—and the mind too. Headaches, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness, poor sleep, weakness, heart palpitation and gloomy spirits, all come from constipation. And that isn't the worst of it. It lays your system open to all sorts of serious and dangerous illness. It isn't safe to neglect constipation and it isn't safe to use dangerous wrenching cathartics, to overcome it, either. They leave you worse off than before. What is needed is a mild natural laxative like Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They act surely but without any violence. They regulate and strengthen the intestines to do their own work. When the "Pleasant Pellets" cure you, you are cured. You don't become a slave to their use. Take care the druggist doesn't give you something else he calls "just as good." It may be for him, but how about you?

You might learn a thousand valuable lessons about preserving your health by reading Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a grand book and the present edition is absolutely free to all who send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. It contains 1008 pages and over 300 engravings. 680,000 cloth-bound copies have been sold at $1.50 each. This free edition is in strong manilla paper covers, otherwise it is just the same. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
